

RECONCILIATION IS NOT IN SIGHT

However, Friends Hope Roosevelt and Baldwin Will Reach Understanding.

New Haven, Conn., December 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has written to Governor-Elect Simeon E. Baldwin several times since the election of November 8, it is understood, but the letters have been returned. There has been no definite adjustment of the controversy which arose over Colonel Roosevelt's criticism of Judge Baldwin's alleged attitude towards workingmen's compensation laws, but mutual friends are said to be trying to bring about a reconciliation.

Colonel Wellman, president of the New Haven Chamber of Commerce, has been in correspondence with Colonel Roosevelt in order to pave the way for acceptance by Judge Baldwin of the invitation to address the chamber at its banquet next Wednesday. It is said that Judge Baldwin insists that a public statement must come from Colonel Roosevelt touching upon the latter's proposed Concord, N. H., before direct communication will be considered. Pending a statement from Colonel Roosevelt, there is no acceptance by Judge Baldwin of the invitation to the banquet as a guest and speaker.

Implicates a Denial.
New York, December 6.—After reading the New Haven dispatch at his office here to-day, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Judge Baldwin has written to me and I have answered the correspondence. The correspondence is not yet completed and therefore there is nothing more to say at this time."

This statement implies a denial of the report that Judge Baldwin has returned several letters that Colonel Roosevelt has written him since November 8.

Colonel Roosevelt would not discuss the nature of his correspondence with Judge Baldwin, but the fact that such a correspondence is in progress was taken to indicate that friends are striving for a mutually satisfactory understanding.

IF YOU HAVE A SICKLY YOUNGSTER TRY THIS FREE

The family with young children that is without sickness in the home, and then is rare, and so it is important that the head of the household know what to do in the little emergencies that arise. A child with a serious ailment needs a doctor, it is true, but in the majority of instances, as any doctor knows, the child suffers from some intestinal trouble, usually constipation.

There is no sense in giving it a pill or a remedy containing an opiate, nor is fanning of the bowels to be always recommended. Rather give it a small dose of a mild, gentle laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, by cleaning out the bowels and strengthening the little stomach muscles, will immediately correct the trouble.

This is not alone our opinion, but that of Mrs. N. H. Mead, of Freeport, Discovered a New Cave in Augusta County, Va.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., December 6.—Two Washington and Lee boys, Grady Ellison and Louis Hook, while on a cross-country tramp, discovered a new cave in Augusta county, several miles west of Staunton, last week. At first the cave appeared as merely a crevice in the rocks. Subsequent visits of exploration, however, have resulted in locating a new cave of great beauty. About seventy feet in length and forty in height, the subterranean cavern is thickly studded with stalactites, hanging in fantastic formations. The cave is about two miles from the recent "cave-in" territory in Staunton, and it is probable that more unknown caverns exist in Augusta county.

CAMPAIGN NEARS END IN LYNCHBURG

Both Sides Seem Confident of Victory on Friday.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., December 6.—Two more days and the Lynchburg voters will again decide whether the city shall or shall not license the saloon for a period of two years, for Friday the campaign, which has been on for a month, will come to an end at the ballot box.

Wednesday night the "wets" will hold their first public meeting at the City Auditorium, at which time John L. Lee, the famous criminal attorney, and Randolph Harrison, one of the best known lawyers of the State who is the counsel for the Old Dominion in the Virginia-West Virginia controversy pending in the United States Supreme Court, will be the speakers.

At the same time in one of the larger churches Rev. George R. Stuart, the evangelist, will talk to men. On Thursday night Mr. Stuart is billed to speak at the auditorium.

The campaign has been fought hard, and both sides are confident of victory Friday. The Anti-Saloon League has had many speakers to address the voters in addition to its own personal work, while the "wets" thus far have confined their canvass to quiet work with the voters who might be changed by argument.

The campaign has not been bitter, despite the determined work of both sides. The city voted "dry" by a majority of 181 two years ago. The vote Friday will be much larger than a year ago.

HOW TO MAKE A PINT OF THE BEST COUGH SYRUP AND SAVE $2

This recipe for home-made cough remedy is used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. It is a little, but it is splendid. Even whooping cough yields to it quickly.

Put one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents) in a pint bottle and add for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This simple remedy will usually stop a deep-seated cough in less than twenty-four hours. It tones up the appetite, has a pleasant taste, and is slightly laxative, which is helpful. You will also find it splendid for bronchial troubles, lung and throat affections, etc.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is so popular that it is often imitated, though never successfully. In trying it, use only the pure, genuine Pinex, which contains gualac and all the natural healing elements of Norway pine, and is concentrated.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money refunded with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

STEUBEN STATUE UNVEILED TO-DAY

Delegations From All Over United States Will Be Present.

Washington, December 6.—Delegations from German societies all over the United States will be present at the unveiling of the statue of Baron Steuben, the German officer who came to this country in 1775 to assist General Washington in the war of the Revolution.

There seems a strong probability that the ceremonies will overtop those of any previous event of this kind at the capital. Secretary of War Dickinson will preside at the unveiling and Representative Bartholdt will take a leading part.

Mr. Bartholdt was the author of the legislation appropriating $50,000 for the monument and author of the inscription it will bear. He is also the author of the legislation appropriating $5,000 for a replica of the statue to be presented to Emperor William and the German empire. The expectation is that the St. Louisian will be selected to present the replica to Emperor William.

It is estimated that 10,000 persons will participate in the military and civic parade that will follow the unveiling ceremonies. The German singing societies will take an active part. Speeches will be made by President Taft, Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, Representative Bartholdt and President Hexamer, of the German-American Alliance. Major-General William H. Carter, assistant chief of staff of the army, will be grand marshal of the parade. The staff will be Major T. Allen, Eighth Cavalry.

Baron Steuben's services were of inestimable value to the disheartened Revolutionary army when he joined it at its winter camp at Valley Forge. His hopes were kindled at their lowest ebb, and the continuance of the struggle seemed futile; so it was with rising spirits that they welcomed this young officer, who came to them fresh from a distinguished service under Frederick the Great, of Germany. Not only did he bring hope, but he brought the tactics of the modern army. He reorganized the troops, prepared a manual of tactics and improved their discipline.

Baron Steuben was from the time he accepted the rank of inspector-general a prominent figure in the fortunes of the Revolutionary army. He sat at the court-martial of Major Andre and took part, as a major-general, in the siege of Yorktown.

Major-General Cuno von Steuben will attend the unveiling. He said other members of the Steuben family had also been invited and some of them would undoubtedly attend.

General Cuno von Steuben is a direct descendant of a brother of the Revolutionary hero.
